Fire and Emergency Drills

For many years, Education Law (section 807) has required school districts to conduct a total of 12 fire drills in all school buildings each school year to ensure the safety of students in emergency situations.

Though the total requirement of drills remains the same, recent changes to the law have expanded the drills to include fire and emergency situations in order to focus on appropriate emergency response rather than just building evacuation. Previously, eight of the drills needed to be held by Dec. 1, but additional changes to the law require the first eight must be completed by Dec. 31. Furthermore, eight of the 12 drills must be fire drills, and the other four of the 12 drills must be lockdown drills.

Of those four lockdown drills, three of them are planned and coordinated by the school, and one is unannounced and coordinated by the Auburn Police Department. The school district has been working with the police department to hold one unannounced drill every school year in each of our buildings since 2008. The purpose of these unannounced drills is to help prepare our students and staff in case of a real emergency situation. The school district has no knowledge of when the police department will be holding the unannounced drill.

We understand that hearing about a lockdown drill from your child as it is happening may cause some concern, so moving forward, your child's school will send out a prerecorded voice call alert as soon as possible once a lockdown drill has begun. Hopefully, this will help alleviate any concerns surrounding lockdown drills.

If you have any questions regarding fire and emergency drills, please do not hesitate to contact your child's school or the Superintendent's office.

Scholastic Art Awards

Since 1923, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards have recognized the vision, ingenuity, and talent of our nation's youth, and provided opportunities for creative teens to be celebrated. Each year, increasing numbers of teens participate in the program: young artists and writers, filmmakers and photographers, poets and sculptors, video game artists and science fiction writers, along with countless educators who support and encourage the creative process. Once again the students of Auburn High School Art Department did extremely well at the Scholastic Art Awards at Onondaga Community College. Out of 6000 pieces submitted, AHS students captured many awards in the competition against the finest school districts in the region.

An Interview with Mrs. Leslie Walker

6th grade students at
Genesee Elementary School

Mrs. Leslie Walker has been working as a teacher aide at Genesee Elementary School for twenty years. We learned that in 1963, when she was twelve years old, she attended the March on Washington where Martin Luther King Jr. gave his “I have a dream” speech. With Martin Luther King Jr. day coming up, we decided to ask her some questions. The first thing we asked was how she got to Washington. She said that a bus came to the churches in Auburn and picked up the people who were going and Mrs. Walker, who was twelve years old, and her sister, who was eleven, were the only ones who went from her family. She told us there were about 250,000 people at the March.

One of the memories that stood out was the rainy bus ride down and how the sun came out when they arrived in Washington, and when she got off the bus she almost stepped in a mud puddle. She remembered hearing Peter, Paul and Mary singing “If I Had A Hammer” when she got off the bus. She was lucky to be up front for Dr. King’s speech - about eight rows back. She said, “I remember Dr. King’s voice being so loud and strong...to me at that age it was almost like thunder.” For Mrs. Walker the speech made a difference for her family - when they went to visit Alabama to see her grandfather they could now go outside and feel safe. She thinks we should celebrate Martin Luther King Jr. Day better and learn more about him in schools because schools used to be segregated, and we have Dr. King to thank for changing that. Mrs. Walker ended our interview by saying “Everybody should be accepted, regardless of the color of their skin.”

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)

Students who are applying to colleges, please be aware that procedures for the confidentiality of student records within the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) have recently changed. ### NEW YORK STATE SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY:

You can go online to find out if any sexual offenders live near you. The New York State Sex Offender Registry is available at www.criminaljustice.ny.gov/nsor/index.htm whereby you can search for Level 2 and Level 3 sex offenders.

The Auburn Enlarged City School District has been facing significant budget shortfalls year after year due to major flaws with the New York State Foundation Aid formula and its lack of funding.

Join the fight to eliminate the Income Wealth Index “floor” of .65 so ALL public schools can achieve equitable educational funding!

If the “floor” of .65 were eliminated, Auburn and 150 other school districts across the state would see a net benefit in the amount of Foundation Aid they receive.

#FixAndFundIt

Please help spread the message:

SEND!

Post cards addressed to Governor Cuomo are available at the Harriet Tubman Administration Building at 78 Thornton Avenue and the main offices of each school. A directory of NYS officials is available at: district.auburn.cnyric.org/Budget

SIGN!

A petition requesting the Governor take immediate action to fix and fully fund the Foundation Aid formula for public schools is available to download at district.auburn.cnyric.org/Budget. Ask your family, friends, neighbors, and any other district resident you know to sign the petition.

SHARE!

Use our hashtag - #FixAndFundIt - on social media.

Our students deserve fair and equitable funding. They need everyone on board to spread this message. The more the governor and other lawmakers hear the message, the more likely they are to listen and act!

ATTENDANCE MATTERS!

Seward Elementary School-Wide Community Café

Seward
Community
CAFÉ

On Thursday, December 21, the school community at Seward Elementary paused from their daily routines to engage in discussion topics for re-teaching PBIS lessons using a Community Café model. Students were organized in buddy classes with two grade levels and teachers utilized a variety of engagement strategies in order to facilitate discussion among the students. The PBIS Team determined the three discussion prompts utilizing the PBIS data collected up to December.

The three prompts that the students discussed were:

1. Now that winter is here, how can you be safe when entering and exiting the building at arrival and dismissal?
2. What are some ways you can be respectful, responsible, safe and engaged at home and in the community over the holiday break?
3. How will you show respect for yourself, your classmates, and your teacher when you return to school in January?

Some responses from the students in regards to being safe at arrival and dismissal included: standing still at the bus stop, wear appropriate clothing for the weather, walk slowly, be careful when it's icy, carry your coat, and not throwing snowballs.

When the students discussed how they could show respect, responsibility, safety and engagement at home and in the community, students responded with donating toys to the less fortunate, help around the house, ask a neighbor if they need their driveway and sidewalks shoveled, help bring in the groceries, and say thank you for gifts.

Students ended the discussion speaking about responsibility, respect, safety and engagement when they return to school after the break. Students identified being on time for school, asking friends how their break was, completing classwork and homework, being prepared for class, helping fellow students and following school rules.

The Community Café lasted for approximately 25 minutes and many teachers shared the responses of their students that were, in turn, shared with the school community in between prompts over the PA system. The students showed a high level of engagement throughout the experience and contributed to rich discussions in every buddy group!

The public is invited to attend our next Community Café on Wednesday, March 14th, with a light dinner being served at 5:30 p.m. and a discussion following from 6:00-7:00 p.m. Free childcare will be available. Please call (315)255-8600 by Tuesday, March 13th if you plan to attend.
