Elementary schools celebrated the 100th Day of School on Friday, February 9th. At Casey Park some students chose to dress as if they were 100 years old. Our entire Kindergarten teaching team dressed up like they were 100 years old. All students entered through 100 day entry ways in the morning. The 100th student entering from grades 2-6 and grades 1-2 were given a special prize. Many 100 Day activities connected to our Math and ELA curriculum were observed throughout the day.

WHEN TO KEEP A CHILD HOME WITH ILLNESS DURING COLD AND FLU SEASON

Sometimes it can be difficult for a parent to decide whether to send children to school when they wake up with early symptoms of an illness or complaints that they do not feel well. In general, during cold and flu season, unless your child is significantly ill, the best place for them is in school where they have all already been exposed to the same germs and where they are less likely to expose other more vulnerable people, like the very young or very old, to their routine bouts of cold and flu. Remind and show your children to discard used tissues promptly, not to share personal items, to cover their mouths and nose when they cough or sneeze with the crook of the elbow, to keep their hands away from their face, and to wash hands thoroughly and often with soap and warm water. Suggest that they silently sing the Happy Birthday song twice while washing their hands. However, there are some situations in which it is best to plan on keeping your child home for the day to rest or to arrange for an appointment with your health care provider. The following are a few such situations that warrant watching and possibly conferring with your health care provider:

- Persistent fever greater than 100 degrees orally, including a fever that requires control with medication, like Tylenol
- Child is too sleepy or ill from an illness, like vomiting and/or diarrhea, to profit from sitting in class all day
- Significant cough that makes a child feel uncomfortable or disrupts the class
- Sore throat that is severe, accompanied by fever and/or feeling ill, that persists longer than 24 hours, and after known exposure to a confirmed case of Streptococcal throat infection
- Honey-crusted sores around the nose or mouth or rash on other body parts; OR a rash in various stages including boils, sores and bumps; OR a significant rash accompanied by other symptoms of illness such as fever
- Red, runny eyes that distract the child from learning
- Large amount of discolored nasal discharge, especially if accompanied by facial pain or headache
- Severe ear pain or drainage from the ear
- Severe headache, especially if accompanied by fever
- Any condition that you think may be serious or contagious to others

Whenever there is an outbreak of a specific contagious infection, the school sends out a notice to alert you to watch out for any symptoms. If your child starts to develop symptoms, it is important that you alert your own health care provider that your child had possible exposure. Be sure to ask your provider when it is safe for your child to return to school, both for your child's health and for the health of the rest of the school. If you send your child to school even though you suspect there is significant illness as described above, please call the school nurse to provide her/him with phone numbers where you can be reached that day should your child become more ill and require early dismissal.

Finally, if you know your child is still running a fever, it is not a good idea simply to give them Tylenol and send them onto school because as soon as the medicine wears off, you are apt to get the dreaded call from the school nurse to leave work and come to pick up your feverish child. It is better to let them stay home in bed with a fever and take their medications at home until they are off all medicines and ready to learn for a full day in a classroom. If you find a pattern of your child's asking to stay home from school, especially if there does not appear to be any obvious physical symptoms, it may be a good idea to contact your school nurse and your health care provider to discuss your concerns. Remember, whenever you keep your child home from school, please call the school nurse or attendance office in advance of the start of the school day and leave a message that your child will be absent.

The Auburn High School Counseling Department hosted two college and career panels in December 2017 featuring several AHS alumni. The first panel consisted of three former students who have found success in the world of work, while current college students made up the second panel. The overwhelming message from all of our panelists was the importance of hard work and personal responsibility for one's own success. We'd like to share with you some of the exciting things our grads have been doing by highlighting a few each month.

Emma Bauso, Class of 2011

Emma is a stationery designer and photographer who loves fulfilling her clients' visions and capturing memories that will last through her photos for years to come. She believes in the importance of beautiful invitations that represent the significance of life events, and photographing her clients in a way that truly tells their story. Emma lives in Auburn with her right-hand guy, Dom, and their two children, Julian and Nova. She is self-taught in both areas of her work and hopes to continually learn and evolve with the help of her peers and own self-motivation. Emma is the owner of Emma Bauso Designs.

Ryan Coe, Class of 2011

Ryan has always been a hard worker and began by doing yard work and snowplowing while still in high school. After graduation, he was employed with a landscaping company but soon realized that his own hard work and pride in the finished product would be of greater benefit to him if he were his own boss. Ryan started his own landscaping company, RYCOE, and has enjoyed tremendous growth in the last four years. He employs four to five workers and has gained many clients through word of mouth due to his excellent reputation. Ryan prides himself on his strong work ethic and credits reliability and hard work for his success.

Corey Soules, Class of 2011

Corey began working in high school, plowing snow and doing landscaping work. At the age of 16, he joined the Owasco Volunteer Fire Department and was actively involved. After graduating from Auburn, Corey went to lineman school, but realized that it wasn't the career for him. He came back to Auburn, earned his EMT license, and worked for TLC Ambulance. Later on, he attended SUNY Upstate Medical University and trained to become a paramedic. Corey began his paramedic work with Rural Metro/AMR and now works with Four Town Ambulance. Not ever one to sit still, Corey spends his time off in the winters at Gore Mountain as a ski patrol medic. He is also trained in Wilderness and Expedition Medicine, and he travels to long-distance road races around the country, serving as a medic to the runners. Corey's work-hard-and-never-quit attitude has brought him the success he enjoys today.

To celebrate our school wide community and dedication to PRIDE we host celebration events! ## Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)

Students who are applying to colleges, please be aware that procedures for the confidentiality of student records within the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) have recently changed. FERPA permits school officials to disclose all education records, including disciplinary records, to another institution at which the student seeks or intends to enroll. This now also applies to post-secondary institutions (colleges), upon request.

The Auburn Enlarged City School District has been facing significant budget shortfalls year after year due to major flaws with the New York State Foundation Aid formula and its lack of funding.

Join the fight to eliminate the Income Wealth Index “floor” of .65 so ALL public schools can achieve equitable educational funding!

If the “floor” of .65 were eliminated, Auburn and 150 other school districts across the state would see a net benefit in the amount of Foundation Aid they receive.

#FixAndFundIt

Please help spread the message:

SEND!

Post cards addressed to Governor Cuomo are available at the Harriet Tubman Administration Building at 78 Thornton Avenue and the main offices of each school. A directory of NYS officials is available at: district.auburn.cnyric.org/Budget

SIGN!

A petition requesting the Governor take immediate action to fix and fully fund the Foundation Aid formula for public schools is available to download at district.auburn.cnyric.org/Budget. Ask your family, friends, neighbors, and any other district resident you know to sign the petition.

SHARE!

Use our hashtag - #FixAndFundIt - on social media.

Our students deserve fair and equitable funding. They need everyone on board to spread this message. The more the governor and other lawmakers hear the message, the more likely they are to listen and act!

District Sport Stacking Contest

Sport Stacking, also known as “cup stacking,” is an activity in which children stack plastic cups in patterns. The activity is designed to make them more ambidextrous and improve their eye-hand coordination and quickness. On Wednesday, February 14, the elementary Physical Education teachers held a District-wide Sport Stacking Contest. Approximately 150 students, 30 from each elementary building, sent a team to Seward Elementary School. The students competed in various sport-stacking challenges.

Participating in the Sport Stacking Tournament, is (Left) Jazmine Simmons, 5th grade from Herman Avenue. (Right) Mikey Keogan and Elizabeth Baroody, 6th graders from Owasco competed in partners and they came in first place.
