In Dr.Slavic’s prior district, there was a group called PAC: parent advisory committee. Changed gears of PAC to create yearly goals that would help the district, which also included a district wide celebration-a day to celebrate Auburn district (district showcase). The members of PAC also were representatives to share information and facts with the community. Dr.Slavic’s hope is that the DPC will be a forum for communication and information sharing. Discussion and introduction of “Roo” , Dr.Slavic’s therapy dog. Roo is deaf, and has had very impactful experiences with students. Therapy dogs can be brought to school to help with mental health situations. Tomorrow night’s board meeting : one topic will be a cell phone policy (first read). New policy states no cell phones allowed “out” K-12. They can be in backpacks, etc, just not out. Discussion. Safety: discussion of a situation in the district regarding a threat to Genesee. Police were contacted and the case has been investigated and resolved. No threat was found. Dr.Slavic spoke of the zero tolerance policy in our district. No personal information can be shared by the district regarding the details. There are consequences for the student. Dr.Slavic discussed safety training in her prior district. She has met with the safety team in our district and feels the policies and protocols we have in the district are outstanding. The state is working toward removing all school building plans off the internet. Dr.Slavic stated that we have to focus on connection/relationship building in our schools so that students feel they belong. General discussion about safety. |
